

Principles & Practice of Clinician Leadership 2 (PPCL2)

Developing Critical Influence, Change, & Communication Skills

2022 Virtual Program Information

Formerly known as Clinician Leadership Intensive Program (CLIP), PPCL2 blends evidence-based theory with hands-on practice and supportive coaching. Physicians & advanced practice clinicians (APCs) can provide effective and sustainable leadership through renewal, reflection, protected time, space to learn, and practical, relevant skill building.

Target Audience

Ideal candidates are high-potential, established physician and advanced practice clinician leaders with at least 6 months experience in their current leadership role. Examples of leaders who would benefit are clinician champions, committee chairs, site/department/care center leads and medical directors. Completion of PPCL1 (formerly IPAL) is a prerequisite for this program. Exceptions may be made based upon experience in role and other Leadership Development education.

Day 3

Leadership Skills in Action Graduation

Day 1	Day 2	Intersession Workshop	Project Presentation Small Groups	Day 3
October 7 ~8:30am – 4:00pm	October 21 ~8:30am – 4:00pm	November 9 1:00pm (90 min)	Nov 28 - Dec 8 Multiple options (60 min)	December 9 ~8:30am - Noon

Format / Time Commitment

All sessions take place virtually through Zoom and are 6-7 hours long (~8:30am - ~4:00pm), except where noted. Frequent breaks and time for lunch are included throughout the day. There is approximately one (1) hour of independent intersession work required between sessions. Participants will work on a self-selected project throughout the program's duration culminating in a 5 minute virtual project presentation in small groups. We strongly advise participants clear their calendar of other obligations on class days to enable optimal participation. Completion of all sessions is required for continuing education credit.

Through the program, participants will:

- Recognize the link between emotional intelligence (EQ), leadership success, and personal EQ effectiveness
- Incorporate simple mindfulness and renewal activities into daily routine
- Apply communication, change management, and influence skills to move a project forward
- Demonstrate ability to influence others by presenting ideas to stakeholders
