

Parkinson's Disease and the Role of Alpha-Synuclein

Wednesday, October 19, 2022

12 – 1 p.m.

Target Audience

Neurologists, primary care physicians and all care staff interested in advances in Parkinson's disease.

Learning Objectives

- Review common symptoms of Parkinson's disease.
- Study the pathologic progression of the disease in the brain, and how that correlates with symptoms.
- Recognize how the alpha-synuclein theory may tie prior pathology understanding together.
