

VIRTUAL GRAND ROUNDS

New Treatment Options in Cancer Care: Immunotherapy, Targeted Drugs, and Others

TARGET AUDIENCE: PCPs, hospitalists, intensivists, oncologists, and other hospital-based specialists who co-manage patients with lung, kidney, colon, breast, bladder, and other cancers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Review etiology and causes of progression of Cancer
- Review targeted therapy options
- Interpret immunotherapy treatment options
- Examine side effects and gain knowledge about these new drugs

THURSDAY, June 25th, 2020

12:30 – 1:30 pm

VIRTUAL GRAND ROUNDS WITH Q&A

Click Here to Join from WebEx

Dial-in:

(240) 454-0887 - Access code: 806 847 670

Need Help Connecting to WebEx?

For WebEx assistance, join us on Tuesday, June 23rd from 12 – 12:30 pm via WebEx for a tutorial or email SutterVirtualGrndRds@sutterhealth.org

Vijay S. Suhag, MD
Hematologist-Oncologist

- Board certified in Internal Medicine
- National Cancer Institute-designated cancer researcher
- Investigates novel therapies for hematological malignancies and solid tumor cancers
- Participates in cooperative group cancer clinical trials testing new immunotherapies and targeted therapies

Sutter Roseville Cancer Center
sutterhealth.org

In accordance with the American Disability Act (ADA), for special accommodations, please call Heidi, Medical Librarian at (916) 781-1580.